CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to credit; prohibiting discrimination against a person who seeks to obtain credit; revising provisions governing discrimination based on the marital status of a person who seeks to obtain credit; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires that any person seeking credit be afforded equal opportunity to have their creditworthiness evaluated under the same relevant economic standards and without any discrimination on the basis of their sex or marital status. (NRS 598B.020, 598B.100) Section 2 of this bill defines marital status. Section 3 of this bill permits an applicant for credit who has no credit history and was married to request that a creditor deem the applicant's credit history to be identical to that of the applicant's spouse during their marriage. Under section 3, the failure of a creditor to comply with such a request is deemed to be discrimination based on marital status. Sections 4 and 7 of this bill expand the protection against discrimination to include race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin or ancestry, sexual orientation, and gender identity or expression. Section 6 of this bill requires the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to study the nature and extent of any discrimination based on race, color, creed, religion, disability, national origin or ancestry, sexual orientation, and gender identity or expression. Section 6 also requires the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to cooperate with and assist in programs to prevent or eliminate such discrimination.
